LANCOPEX CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the nineteenth annual Lancopex Stamp Show and Exhibit. I hope that you will find the bourse and exhibit to your liking and that you will be able to enhance your collection.

I must thank the dealers, exhibitor and especially the many club members who worked so hard to make this production a success. My greatest thanks must be to you, the attendees for your participation.

Should you be so impressed with the show that you feel compelled to join our organization, please do so today. I promise that you will be offered a position on our Lancopex committee and in the meantime you will enjoy our monthly meetings while enlarging your philatelic knowledge.

Thank you again for attending, ENJOY, and see you next year.

James Boyles, Richard Shaefer

commemorates
the 1874 establishment of the Columbia & Philadelphia Railroad

Cover by Lancaster County Philatelic Society

First 1834 trip from Lancaster to Columbia consisted of three passenger cars drawn by horses, the next month the cars were pulled by a locomotive. Track ran along Queen Street in Lancaster city. First rail to haul freight in the United States. Became part of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
