OCTOBER MEETING

President Milliken called the meeting to order at 6:59 p.m. and had the group stand and pledge allegiance to the flag. Guests present this evening were Ken Mowrer and Joe Glass.

The secretary's report was approved as read. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $8,770.41.

In reports from the committees, Dick Pendergrast reported that we currently have 115 members. Sharon Gromis reminded the group that there are 50-50 tickets as well as door prize tickets.

There was a discussion about the programs for next year, the need for helpers at the club table, and a request for board members. There will be a discussion about these subjects and the Christmas party as well as subjects for 2019 monthly postcard competition at the November meeting.

In the 50-50 competition, Donna Bashaw won $13.50 and the $2 voucher door prizes were won by Dede Schaeffer and Mahlon Campbell.

Don Tribit presented a program about White House families, behind the scenes. Among the interesting facts that he presented were that John and Abigail Adams were the first family to occupy the White House and that the plaster was still wet when they moved in. Abigail dried the laundry in the East Room. Jefferson's life mask is on display at the Hall of Life Masks in Cooperstown, NY, along with Madison's. Dolly Madison helped Jefferson with decorating. These little-known aspects of family life at the White House in the early days of the presidency were entertainingly presented through postcards.

President Milliken adjourned the meeting at 8:07.

FRANCES BRUNDAGE

(No. 2 in a Series on Postcard Signed Artists by Dick Pendergrast)

Frances Lockwood was born on a farm in Newark, New Jersey in 1854. Her father was artistic and was an engraver but he deserted the family when she was a teenager.

Frances took to art work herself. She did paintings for Louisa May Alcott books and illustrations for Shakespeare plays. When she was 32 she met and married William T. Brundage, a marine painter. They lived in New York and summered in Cape Ann, Massachusetts. It was then that she did postcard work for Raphael Tuck and later for the Sam Gabriel Company. She died in 1937 at age 82.

Thanksgiving

The year has turned its circle,
The seasons come and go.
The harvest all is gathered in
And chilly north winds blow.

Orchards have shared their treasures,
The fields, their yellow grain,
So open wide the doorway -
Thanksgiving comes again!

(Traditional Rhyme)
