JANUARY MEETING

On a very cold night, 21 members and guests signed in for the 26th LCPC anniversary. President Susan Glass started the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance. One guest was in attendance - Sue Sweeney, Lancaster. Betty Beck read the Secretary's report and gave the Treasurer's report for Barb Mowrer. The balance in the Treasury is $7,438.50.

Dick Pendergrast reminded club members that the dues deadline is in March, but he will gladly accept dues at any time. Dues for the year are $15 for one person and $5 for each additional person. He also reported that there are three new members: Donna Bashaw, Jean Schopf, and Jere Long.

President Glass reported that the Farm and Home Center Board decided to reduce the price of the room rental for the Expo in appreciation of our continued patronage of the center. That said the monthly meeting rent has increased by $10.

Postcards for the February auction are to be given to Walt Mowrer. President Glass will put the "lots" into the next newsletter. Jere reminded club members that the bulk of the auction will be Jim Rudisell's donated collection.

The door prize of Coca Cola cards was won by Maria Schurz. The 50-50 competition of $13 was won by Carl Hellman.

This month's program was Members' Favorites featuring a favorite New Year's card. Betty Beck – an art deco card; Dick Pendergrast – card by the artist Frances Brundage; Aaron Heckler – sledding; Maria Schurz – a New Year's card with good luck symbols; Paul Smoker – an unusual New Year's card he bought at auction.

LEAP YEAR LOVE

It's 1908 and the excitement is: Who Romances Who? Back then, and the next generation or two, it was supposed to be the year when girls were allowed to make advances on the boy. And our set of P. Sanders images feature just that! But those were the good 'Ole Days. Since Women's Lib that kind of romancing went "out the door." In fact, some "kids" under 40, never heard of the old "Sadie Hawkins Day" custom immortalized by Al Capp's Daisy Mae, 'Lil Abner, and the rest of his Dogpatch neighborhood.

With equality of the sexes, these cute kids are but a memory.
